

Biography Otavio Bernardes:

Otavio Bernardes has been engaged in dairy buffalo breeding since 1975, based in São Paulo, Brazil, with operations spanning milk production, semen, and embryos of Murrah buffaloes. He has experience in the management of dairy buffaloes, as well as in the production and marketing of buffalo cheese.

He served as President of the Brazilian Association of Buffalo Breeders and is founder and former President of the American Federation of Buffalo Breeders.

He holds a Medical degree with a specialization in Dermatology, and is also active in real estate development.